

Architectural firm LS3P Associates' design plans for the Whiteville High School construction project.

The new PreK-8 schools at Cerro Gordo and Tabor City will both recall the classical style of Tabor City High School.